Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The observance of World Health Day on April 7 calls attention to the goal of Health for All by the Year 2000 to which the World Health Organization and all its member governments, including the United States, are pledged; and,

WHEREAS, Advances in health in every community, state and nation contribute to the achievement of this global challenge; and,

WHEREAS, The theme for World Health Day 1983 in the United States, "Better Lifestyle, Better Health," is based on the scientific conclusion that the major threats to health in this and other industrialized countries, including heart disease, cancer, accidents and stroke, can be prevented or strikingly reduced by sound health-related behavior; and,

WHEREAS, Significant improvements in the duration and quality of life have already been made through effective educational and other efforts by many agencies and citizens groups in this and other states; and,

WHEREAS, World Health Day furnishes an appropriate occasion to celebrate these accomplishments and communicate the importance of better lifestyles as an instrument for achieving health for all:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 7, 1983, as in South Dakota, in cooperation with observances sponsored by the World Health Organization, the American Association for World Health, and the South Dakota Department of Health.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
